EXPLANATORY MEMORANDUM

Rule 8 of the Press Council Rules, 1979, inter-alia, provided that the employees of the Press Council of India shall be entitled to subscribe to the Contributory Provident Fund (India) with effect from the date of appointment in the Council. However, the Contributory Provident Fund (India) is meant only for those subscribers who draw their salaries from the Consolidated Fund of India. The employees of the Council draw their salaries from sources other than the Consolidated Fund of India and, therefore, they are not eligible to contribute to the Contributory Provident Fund (India). Since the employees of the Council have necessarily to subscribe to the Contributory Provident Fund constituted by the Council itself, it became necessary to amend the said rule so as to omit the bracket as well as the word “(India)” in the bracket appearing after the phrase “Contributory Provident Fund”.

2. In the meantime, some employees became eligible to subscribe to the Contributory Provident Fund and have in fact been doing so since the day of their appointment in the Council. With a view to safeguarding their interests, it became necessary to make the said amendment in the said rules from a retrospective date.

3. The interests of no one would be prejudicially affected by reason of the decision to give retrospective effect from the 1st day of March, 1979 to the Press Council (Amendment) Rules, 1980.
