धारा बाल जल्लान, उप-सचिव,।
G.S.R. 1785.—In exercise of the powers conferred by Section 22 of the Press Council Act, 1965 (34 of 1965), the Central Government, after consultation with the Press Council of India, hereby makes the following rules further to amend the Press Council Rules, 1966, namely:—

1. In the Press Council Rules, 1966, for Rule 4, the following rule shall be substituted, namely:—

"4. Allowances to be paid to Members other than the Chairman and Members of Parliament.—(1) A member, other than the Chairman, performing journeys to attend the meetings of the Council or in connection with any work relating to the Council, shall be entitled to travel by rail in first class.

Provided that the Government may sanction travel by air-conditioned class accommodation for any member, where this concession in their opinion, justifies on fulfilment of one or more of the following reasons:—

(i) When a person is required to travel in air-conditioned accommodation on grounds of health or because of very advanced age and/or infirmity;

(ii) When a person is or was entitled to travel in air-conditioned coach under the rules of the organisation to which he belongs or might have belonged before retirement; and

(iii) Where the Government is satisfied that A.C.C. travel by rail is the customary mode of travel by the non-official concerned in respect of journeys unconnected with the performance of Government duty.

2. Air travel is not to be permitted as a matter of course. The Chairman may, subject to any general Instructions of the Government in this behalf, sanction travel by air of any member of the Council where he is satisfied that air travel is urgent and necessary in the public interest.

Provided that the member so authorised to travel by air shall purchase a return ticket, if available.

(3) Journey by Road.—In respect of journeys by road between places not connected by rail, a member will be entitled to road mileage @ 0.32 paise per kilometre.

In case where journey between two places connected by rail is performed by road, rail being the ordinary mode of travelling, the road mileage will be regulated:—

(1) When a journeys performed by taking a single seat in a public conveyance, the lower rate of road mileage viz. 0.10 paise per kilometre but limited to rail mileage, will apply.

(2) When the journey is performed otherwise, the higher rate of road mileage viz. 0.32 paise per kilometre but limited to rail mileage, will apply.

However, if in an individual case, the Government is satisfied that the journey by road was performed in the public interest, he may be allowed the full road mileage, without imposing the limit of rail mileage.

(4) Subject to the provisions of sub-rules (1) and (2) a member, other than the Chairman, shall be entitled to the travelling allowance as follows:—

A. By Rail:

(a) A.C.C. or First Class rail fare; as the case may be;

(b) Incidental expenses @ 35 paise for every ten kilometers or part thereof if it exceeds five kilometers provided that the allowance for incidental expenses shall be restricted to one daily allowance at the highest rate admissible to Government Servants of the First Grade for ordinary localities, laid down in Supplementary Rule 91 for every 24 hours of the railway journey or part thereof.
B. By Air:

(a) One standard air fare, subject to the limit of the fare on return ticket, if available;

(b) Incidental expenses @ 1/5th of the standard air fare limited to Rs. 10 for each single journey, as provided in the Ministry of Finance O.M. No. F.4(13)E.IV/B/67 dated 2nd November, 1967 provided that if more than one air journey (including the return journey) are performed within 24 hours, the total entitlement to incidental allowance for all the journeys shall be restricted to Rs. 10 or one daily allowance at the highest rates admissible to Government Servants of the First Grade for ordinary localities under the Supplementary Rules, whichever is more.

(5) Daily Allowance.—(1) Provided that for each day of the meeting, a member will be entitled to daily allowance at the rate of Rs. 50.

(6) In addition to the daily allowance for the day(s) of the meeting, a member shall also be entitled to full daily allowance for the preceding and/or the day following the meeting if,

1. he arrives in the forenoon of the day preceding the day of the meeting or on an earlier day; and/or
2. he departs at 12 noon or in the afternoon of the day following the day of the meeting or on a later day.

But he will be entitled to only half daily allowance for the day preceding and/or for the day following the meeting, if,

1. he arrives at 12 noon or in the afternoon of the day preceding the day of the meeting, and/or
2. he departs in the forenoon of the day following the day of the meeting.

(6) Conveyance Allowance.—A member, resident at a place where the meeting of the Press Council is held, will not be entitled to travelling and daily allowances on the scales indicated in sub-paras (a) and (b) above, but will be allowed only the actual cost of conveyance hire, subject to a maximum of Rs. 10 per day. Before the claim is actually paid, the Controlling Officer should verify the claim and satisfy himself, after obtaining such details as may be considered necessary, that the actual expenditure was not less than the amount claimed. In cases, he is not satisfied with the details, he may, at his discretion, limit the conveyance allowance to road mileage.

(7) Allowances to be paid to Members of Parliament.—(a) Travelling Allowance.—In respect of journeys performed by rail, road, air and steamer in connection with the work of the Press Council, a Member of Parliament will be entitled to travelling allowance on the same scale as is admissible to him under Section 4 of the Salaries and Allowances of Members of Parliament Act, 1954.

A Member of Parliament will ordinarily travel by rail utilising the free first class rail pass issued to him. He may also travel by air at his discretion. Air travel should not, however, be resorted to as a matter of course and in exercising his discretion the Member should take into account factors like urgency of work, distance to be travelled, time at his disposal, etc.

(b) Daily Allowance.—He would be entitled for each day of the meeting, Daily Allowance at the rate of Rs. 51. The provisions of para 5(ii) under Daily Allowance referred to above will also be applicable to him.

When the Parliament or a Parliamentary Committee on which a Member is serving is in session, the Member will not be entitled to draw any daily allowance in connection with his assignment with the Press Council, as he will be drawing his daily allowance under Section 3 of the Salaries and Allowances of Members of Parliament Act, 1954, from the Parliament Secretariat concerned. However, if he certifies that he was prevented from attending the Session of the House or the Parliamentary Committee, because of his work connected with the Council and did not draw any daily allowance from the Parliament, he would be entitled to draw daily allowance as indicated above. When a Member of Parliament appointed to a Committee or Council, is allowed free board and lodging at the expenses of the Central Government or State Government etc., in which Government funds have been invested or in which Government have any other interest, shall be entitled to only 1/4th of the daily allowance admissible to him under these orders. If only board and lodging is allowed free, daily allowance shall be admissible at one-half of the admissible rate.

(4) An official Member shall be governed by the rules for grant of Travelling Allowance and Daily Allowance as applicable to him while discharging official duties.
