

Ref: Item No. (vii) page 4 & point (a) by ADG (Ops).

1. All India Radio & Doordarshan stations are encouraged for public interaction with members of the public through various fora including advisory committees attached to programming activities.
2. All India Radio and Doordarshan have Programme Advisory Committees comprising of the Chairman who is the Station Director, non official members drawn from varied fields of arts, science, literature representing all sections of society to advise on its programme conceptualisation, planning and production of programmes through new ideas and feedback.
3. Members of the public are also involved in various Evaluation & Selection Committees related to Programme Production and Outsourcing.